

Alstom Group – FM service technician Traxx Locomotive Belgium

FM TECHNICIAN OPERATIONS SERVICES (M/F)

Technician Operations Services (m/f) provides the repair and technical assistance for the TRAXX locomotives at SNCB site Antwerp, Benelux in general.

Furthermore, you analyze the information and ensure that the necessary corrective measures are taken. You also start preventive actions.

Your tasks

- Ensuring the availability of the rolling stock through telephone permanence
- Carry out Troubleshooting, including investigation and repair
- Identifying and rectifying faults in accordance with the safety regulations
- Guaranteeing and optimizing the execution of the interventions by means of self-checking and functional
- Testing if necessary
- Analyzing the information and carrying out the necessary corrective measures
- Performing administrative tasks (ordering parts, drawing up an intervention report, organizing the daily
- tasks in consultation with our customers...)

Your qualifications

- Training in electrical installation technique/ electromechanics or equivalent through experience
- Experience in troubleshooting, testing, commissioning is a plus
- You also have the necessary knowledge of electricity, air conditioning, pneumatics or hydraulics
- Business trips are to be expected
- Autonomy, customer friendliness, inquisitiveness and sense of initiative are essential
- Native Dutch, knowledge of English/ German is a plus

<https://www.alstom.com/>